

Lots to do in Kingston!

Shopping

When it comes to shopping in Kingston - it's a question of where to begin.

Vegetables and Antiques

Well there is the country's oldest continuously run, outdoor Farmers' Market nestled in behind historic City Hall. It features fresh local produce and flowers and gifts. It also turns into a treasure trove every Sunday throughout the summer months and features a fantastic Antique Market with prices sure to impress visitors accustomed to antiquing in larger cities.

One-of-a-kind Treasures

Surrounding the recently rejuvenated Market Square are 100+ unique shops and boutiques that stretch all the way up Princess Street and part way up Brock Street. you could easily spend a whole day just browsing through these unique shops.

Outlets Galore

Also not to be missed is a wonderful selection of outlet stores across the city that offer factory outlet pricing on everything from ladies' fashions to sports and casual wear and gourmet kitchen gadgets to fine china. Surely you'll find something that you've been meaning to purchase - and at a price you won't believe!

Convenience

Of course Kingston is also home to three large shopping mall areas - the Kingston Centre is located where Bath Road and Princess Street (Hwy 2) meet; the RIOCAN Centre is along Gardiners Road just north of Bath Road; and the at Highway 2 and Gardiners Road - they combine to make a perfect triangle of your favourite stores in a convenient and well laid out format Cataraqui Town Centre. These larger shopping mall areas feature many additional conveniences as well - including banking services, ample parking, Kingston transit service, and walk-in medical and dental clinics.
